From the Watchman of the South.

BELIGIOUS ERPERIENCE. No. TII. The opinion commonly entertained, that the most enormous sinners are the subjects of the most pungent convictions of sin, and the most plarming terrors of hell, is not correct. In regard to such the commence. ment of a work of grace is sometimes very gradual, and the impressions so apparently slight, that they afford very little ground of sanguine expectations of the result. While on the other hand, some persons of an divine things, that I have lived much in and mished moral character, and who since, was, on reading those words, I Tim. have always respected religion and venera- and invisible, the only wise God, be honor ted its ordinances when brought under and glory forever and ever, Amen.' As I conviction are more terribly alarmed, and roore overwhelmed with distress than others and was as it were diffused through it, a whose lives have been stained by gross sense of the glory of the divine Being; a comes. The Rev. John Newton, when new sense quite different from any thing I awakened to some some of his sinful and ever experienced before. Never my words dangerous condition, which occurred during a violent and long continued storm at sea, did. I thought with myself how excellent a though his judgment was convinced that being that was, and how happy I should be. the was the greatest of sinners, and he it I might enjoy that God and be rapt up to doubted whether it was possible for him to him in heaven, and be as it were swallowed be saved; yet seems to have had no very up in him forever." "From about that deep feelings or agitating feas. He time I began to have a new kind of appresays, "It was not till after, p thaps, several hensions and ideas of Christ, and the work years, that I had gained some clear views of redemption, and the glorious way of salderfully does the Lord proportion the discoveries of sin and grace. For he knows our frame, and that if he were to put forth the greatness of his power, a poor sinner would be instantly overwhelmed, and crushed as a moth." And though from this time there was a seasible change, and his existed during several years, in the feeblest so much so to himself, that he warns all he, vevery part of my case has been extraand those few mat have been favored, have honerally passed through the most severe convictious; and after the Lord has given them peace, mor future lives have been ry than common." Now this is the opinion ry than an observation of facts. I think that those persons who have been most that there is no general rule here-that are found as frequently in those who have been preserved from out-breaking transgressions, as in those noted for their immoralities. There seems, indeed, more reason for severe convictions in the later case ; but convictions are not uniformly proportioned to the magnitude of crimes. And in truth, we are incapable of comparing to. gether the heinousness of the sins of differ-"Naw, on the one hand my convictions were very moderate, and far below what might have been expected from the dread. In the dread hardware merchant of this city, who acts as is 4, usually called the time of first love." the original purchase of the soil And then he relates facts which give sail evidence of a very low state of grace; and tunly have been inclined to believe that he was not a subject of saving grace. Bu this lends me to remark a fact analogous to what is common in the natural world; that the infant when born, barely gives evidence of life, may not only grow to maturity, but in size and strength, may far exceed those who commenced life with more activity and vigor; and so in the spiritual life, when the incipient motions and affections are very feeble, the person may eventually be come a mature and eminent Christian, as Frisber, the son of a respectable widow other instances of a similar kind, if my nological developments seem intended for memory serves me, was the Rev. R. Cool, the elaboration of elevated intellectual conwho had also been for many years a profance intidel; but who in process of time nearly qualified to give that expression which became one of the most eminent christians, as well as spiritual preachers of his day .- tellect of that noble looking child has been Dr. Thomas Scott also, was a Socinian, and irremediably destroyed by some silly trifler yet a promoher of the established church; with a false face! by whom he was frigtbut the progress of illumination and convict ened some time last summer. The child, tion in his mind was very gradual. His at the time, fell suddenly down, and for two "Force of Truth" is an admirable little weeks exhibited little or none of his former work, and furnishes a full illustration of the liveliness, and finally his mind gave way sentiment which I wish to inculcate: That entirely, and though he was kept some time grace in the commencement, is often ex- in the hospital, no cure could be effected, ceedingly faint and feeble; and yet may

In the experience of President Edwards, as recorded by himself, we find no account of any deep and distressing convictions of sin at the commencement of his religious course; though afterwards, perhaps few. men ever attained to such deep, humbling views of the depth and turpitude of the depravity of his heart. But his experience differs from that of those mentioned above in that his first views of divine things were clear and attended with upspeakable delight. The first instance, that I remember of that sort of inward, secret delight in God and rom the h.fluence of a religious education 1. 17. Now unto the king cternal immortal read the words, there came into my soul, of Supture seemed to me as those words of the white righteousness and grace of vation b. him. "After this could not have borne the sight; so won- my sense of divine things gradually increased, and became more and more lively, and had more of that inward sweetness. The appearance of every thing was altered .-There seemed to be as it were, a calm, weet, cast or appearance of divine glory. in almost every thing. God's excellency, his wisdom, his purity, and his love seemed mind was turned towards religion, yet it is to appear in every thing." The difference evident from the his ory of his life, as well be ween this and many other cas s of inas his experiences oft rwards, that grace cipient picty is very striking. And yet these views and exercises do not come up to the as a which we can conceive. It appeared standard which some set up in regard to christian exp rience, because they are so persons from considerating his experience abstract, and have such casual reference to a model for them. "As to myself," says Carist, through whom alone God is revealed to man as an object of saving faith .-ordinary-I have burdly met a single in. And if here be a fault in the writings of stance resembling it. This subject deserves further consideration.

THE RUSSIAN EMMIGRANTS AT BUFFALO.

The moral man, as we call tion; and their prolonged stay in our city him, may be the greatest sinner of the two. has led some to think that they would rewhen weighed in the balances of the sane, main during the winter, and become a tax mary. PARMER'S GAZETTE The Editor of the Cheraw Gazette has de termined, at the suggestion of the Pee Dec Agricultural Society, to devote more space than former'y to Agriculture, and matters pertaining specially to its interests. About nine columns, or a page and a half weekly, will be occupied with this subject, except when it shall be necessary to make room for Executive dessages, and a few other political papers such as every intelligent citizen ought to read. A large proportion of what shall appear under the Agricultural head must, of course, be selected. But the numerous Agricultural periodicals now published in this country afford and, after a short time, the reports, and other papers of teh Pee Dee Agricultural Society will of themselves, form no inconsiderable body of original matter, all of it adapted par-ticularly to this part of the country. And it is hoped, also, that among the numerous in-telligent and enterprising planters of the sur-of contributing to the columns of the paper the result of their experience. Among the su jects which will engage the Editor's attention the culture of silk shall not be overlooked. Ample ins ructions will be given, in their proper season, for cultivating the morus multicaulis and making silk.

rounding districts and counties some may be found who will, occasionally, take the trouble

The paper will espouse the cause of no party in politics, but shall contain an impartial sum-mary of political intelligence, and, ccasionally, able speeches and well written essays (when met with) fairly discussing the principles and measures of all parties. It is believed that u comparatively small space devoted to political subjects in this way may be made more profitable to the Farmer of domestic habits, who wishes to be acquainted with the true state of the country and qualified for a proper and intelligent discharge of the duties of citizenship, than a whole sheet filled, from week to week, and year to year, with one-sided discussions, and he mere quarrels of editors and politicians,whilst, at the same time, it will not be calcuated to estrange neighbor from neighbor, or o mislead into a belief that one half of the country are less patriotic than the other, or less ordently attached to our republican instiu ions.

So much of the fourth page as shall not be occupied with standing advertisements will generally be filled up with matter of moral and religious cast, and articles conducive, in other respects, to proper family instruction and family

It the increase to the subscription list upon ssuing this Prospectus shall be sufficient to warrant the expense, new type will be pro-cured, forthwith, for the body of the paper; hat is for the part now printed in large letter; and at the commencement of the next volum the title of the paper will be changed to
